Hard to remain neutral? Not a bit of it. Forget which countries are fighting.

Now that the tango has been kicked into the discard some witless wit arises to remark that it would be quite decent if we leave out the tan and the go.

The town of Solano celebrated Thanksgiving last week by an all-day Session of religious service, Program, Feasting etc. A large crowd spent the day very pleasantly and profitably.

The Fifth Sunday Convention at the church in Mills attracted many Roy people Sunday. The auto livery was busy getting people to it and several teams and private Autos took the rest. A very interesting program was rendered and the picnic dinner was the kind you always get at Mills. The crowd was not so large as it has been at other times but very good for winter. The day was an ideal winter day and all enjoyed the occasion.

S. Tyler and family moved from the Bruce Hotel building Sunday to their claim in LaCinta Canyon where they expect to live in future.

Charles Spickert returned Saturday from Kansas City and other points in the central States. He went with some cattle three weeks ago and found market conditions much congested but sold well. Charles will live in town this winter in order to keep his children in School.

B. W. Sturgis and wife left Monday for an extended visit in Oklahoma and Missouri and other places east. They have arranged to leave their farm here for a time and will make their home at Deming, N. M. after their return from this visit.

Mrs. Sturgis recently fell heir to considerable property at Deming by the death of her Foster-mother and they will go there to look after it. We regret their leaving here but know that sooner or later they will come back.

Wild duck have been flocking around the lakes on the mesa of late and are tempting the sportsmen to go after them. Some quail have been brought in from the Canyons too, of late.

A car load of fine potatoes received this week at the Goodman Mercantile Co. Store is proving very popular at the bargain prices they sell for. They are sure fine ones. See them and get a sack.

J. S. Blasdel, of Amarillo Texas has been in this vicinity the past week finding out things. His card shows him to be with the "Plains Grain Company", of Amarillo and a member of the Texas Grain Dealer's Association. He isn't telling us his mission but we suspect he is getting a line on our crops for a purpose. We are glad to be investigated for we want people elsewhere to know what we have.
